

During the admission process, you will receive a personalized orientation and access to several student services provided at no additional cost. At EDP University, you will have access to onsite services as well as remote services such as: academic support, professional orientation, tutoring services, financial assessment and financial aid options if applicable.