Pamela A. (Krauser) Vargas
Chief Editor
HETS Online Journal

Pamela (Krauser) Vargas is Director of Research and Grant Development at Southeast Missouri State University. She had over 20 years of experience in research administration which includes her years as Director at the Research Center at Kutztown University. She also promotes undergraduate research and works with community leaders to find opportunities for students and faculty to utilize their expertise and contribute to the community. In addition to writing her own articles for publication, Ms. Vargas has served as a reviewer and editor for several publications, including The Journal of Research Administration, the Journal of Healthcare, Science and the Humanities, and the HETS Online Journal.

Contact information:
Address: One University Plaza, MS 4400, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701
Phone: 573.651.2196

Editorial Board Members:

Dr. Ana Milena Lucumi
Vice President, Student Affairs,
National University College

Ana Milena Lucumi Orostegui has a BA in philosophy, literature and pedagogy from the Universidad del Valle, public university in the city of Cali, the third largest city in her native Colombia. She earned a master’s degree in instructional systems and educational technology at the Universidad del Sagrado Corazón in Puerto Rico. She earned her doctoral degree in Instructional Technologies and Distance Education from Nova Southeastern University located in Florida, USA. Since 2011, serves as Vice President of Effectiveness and Student Affairs at National University College of Puerto Rico. She developed the Institutional Retention Model in this institution, in a context of developing social-emotional skills and resilience to promote retention and student persistence in college life.

Contact information:
Phone: 787.780-5134 Ext. 4030
Mobile: 787-587.3440
Email: alucumi@nuc.edu

Mr. Sunil Gupta
Dean, Center for Continuing Education and Workforce Development
Borough of Manhattan Community College / CUNY

Sunil B. Gupta has over 20 years of experience in higher education. He currently is the Dean of the Center of Adult Continuing Education and Workforce Development at Borough of Manhattan Community College, CUNY. In this role, he is responsible for the colleges’ division focused on serving adult learners that are primarily pursuing continuing and professional educational programs.
Additionally, Dean Gupta served on the Board of the National Council for Continuing Education and Training (the NCCET is a national advocacy and policy council), and was Past President for the NCCET, he also currently serves on the Board of the New York City Employment and Training Coalition (NYETC). Before arriving at BMCC Sunil Gupta worked in Continuing Education and Enterprise Learning as the Executive Director of Continuing Education, Distance Learning and Workforce Development at Polytechnic University, where he developed and oversaw university-based degree academic study and continuing education training programs involving students, faculty, and industry. In his various capacities, he helped found a university-based Distance Learning Center for Graduate Degree programs, introduced distance-learning methodologies to support American Studies in Asia. In 2000, Sunil ran the Professional Training and Continuing Education program at the American Institute of Chemical Engineers. Dean Gupta is an active member of ASME, (American Society of Mechanical Engineers), in which he has led their Engineering Management Certification International Committee, and has served as a guest speaker, at ASME’s Engineering Management International Forum, which took place at Beijing’s Tsinghua University. Dean Gupta has a B.A. from Saint John’s University, an M.S. from Polytechnic Institute of NYU and is currently pursuing his doctorate. He is a native New Yorker, born and raised in NYC.

Contact information:
Address: 25 Broadway 8th Floor, New York 10004
Phone: 212-346-8440
webpage: www.bmcc.cuny.edu

Dr. Manuel Correa
Professor and Academic Coordinator Noncredit International Program
Berkeley College

Dr. Correa joined Berkeley College in 2002 as an adjunct faculty member in the Management Department. He became a full-time faculty member in 2007, and teaches a full curriculum in management and business courses both online and onsite. He was asked to take over as Chair, Business Department, of Dover Business College, 2009 – 2011 in preparation of the reaccreditation and eventual merger with Berkeley College. Dr. Correa is bilingual, speaking English and Spanish. In 2014 he obtained his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Business Administration at Northcentral University. In addition, he holds an MBA in Financial Management from Iona College, NY, and a BE in Electrical Engineering from Manhattan College, NY. As Coordinator of Noncredit International Programs, Dr. Correa has expanded a program in which students of European business schools come to Berkeley College to attend classes. The program currently includes 20 colleges and universities from Europe, whose students can participate in six different curriculums to satisfy their study abroad requirements.

Before coming to Berkeley College, Dr. Correa spent 30 years in the business sector, with experience in the electric utilities, financial services and executive search industries. Some of his accomplishments include: Vice President of Marketing for an executive search firm, Director of Corporate Planning among others. Dr. Correa was awarded the Berkeley College Online Faculty Award for Outstanding Teaching in November 2007. He was featured in the October 2008 issue of the Queens Tribune Newspaper for a presentation titled “Hispanics Making a Difference in the Business World.” Dr. Correa presented at the Hispanic Educational Technology Services – Best Practices Showcase Conference (2010) on the topic, transitioning from on-site to on-line teaching — the jump is not as big as you imagine. He also presented on the topic of “The Keys to On-line Retention: Expectation and Communication” at the Hispanic Educational Technology Services (HETS) Best Practices Showcase Conference in 2012. Dr. Correa is Co-Chair of the Berkeley College Globalization Task Force and a Member of the Finance sub-committee of the Berkeley College 2010-2015 Strategic Planning Process. He also is a member of the Financial Executives Networking Group (FENG) and the American Management Association.

Contact information:
Address: Larry L. Luing School of Business, Berkeley College
12 East 41 Street, New York, NY 10017
Email: mcm@berkeleycollege.edu
Mr. Carlos Guevara
Director, Office of Educational Technology
Hostos Community College

An innate leader and fighter, born in Quito-Ecuador, first-generation college student, holds a BS and Master degrees in Computer Science from CUNY & NYU Poly, and is currently pursuing his doctorate degree in Instructional Technology at Teachers College, Columbia University. With over 15 years of experience in Higher Education, Carlos currently works at Hostos Community College as Director of the Office of Educational Technology; where he provides vision to strengthen and bring innovation to teaching and learning through technology. Carlos has established a successful organizational culture shift around technology adoption, implementing initiatives centered on mentoring and communities of practice. Carlos is a frequent presenter of a variety of academic technology topics in several national and international conferences. His main research areas of interest are online learning, social networking in education, and game-based learning. Carlos has recently been elected as Chair of the Hostos HEO Organization, has also Chaired the HETS Distance Learning Task Force, and other several committees at the College. Carlos is also the President and Co-Founder of the Ecuadorian Youth Organization, which mission is to promote the intellectual growth of the Ecuadorian Youth through education. Carlos has also established the Ecuadorian Scholars Fund, which annually provides scholarships for students to continue their college education. Coming from a humble background, and facing many challenges to accomplish his goals, Carlos is convinced that the secrets for success are persistence, humbleness, creativity, and always setting the next goal in life and career.

Contact information:
ePortfolio: http://hostos.digication.com/carlosguevara
Phone: 718.319.7915
Email: cguevara@hostos.cuny.edu

---

Dr. Juan “Tito” Meléndez Alicea
College of Education
University of Puerto Rico, Río Piedras Campus

Dr. Meléndez Alicea has more than three decades of experience in the field of distance education. He published his first article on the subject in 1990, and a book in 1999. In 2014, he was awarded by Universia for creating and facilitating the best MOOC in Latin America. He has presented on the topic of distance education in more than 15 countries. He was PI of the study of the theory and practice of distance education in Puerto Rico for the State Department in 2016. This study is ongoing. Dr. Meléndez has post-doctoral studies on distance education evaluation. He is an active member of the Puerto Rican Evaluation Society and author of several articles and book chapters on the subject of evaluation in distance education. He currently facilitates distance learning courses for the Department of Graduate Studies, at the College of Education, of the University of Puerto Rico, Río Piedras Campus.

Contact information:
Email: juan.melendez16@upr.edu
Portal: jjmelendez.net

---

Prof. Pura Centeno
Coordinator of Technology Services and Information Literacy
Information Technology Center, Natural Sciences Faculty,
University of Puerto Rico, Río Piedras Campus.

Pura Centeno has an MIS in Information Science and Technology and BA in Arts of Communication, both from UPR, Río Piedras Campus. She is member of several Editorial Boards: Acceso: Revista Puertorriqueña de Bibliotecología y Documentación, from Sociiedad de Bibliotecarios de Puerto Rico and Simbiosis: Revista de Ciencia de la Información, from Information Science and Technology Graduated School. She is Coordinator of Technology Services and Information Literacy at the Information and Technology Center of the
HETS ONLINE JOURNAL EDITORIAL BOARD

Natural Sciences Faculty, of the Rio Piedras Campus – University of Puerto Rico (UPR). She is also Coordinator at UPR, of a system wide Community of Practice Apoyo a la Investigación y Labor Creativa (Support to Research and Creative Labor) and the institutional repository of research products at http://repositorio.upr.edu.

Contact information:
Phone: (787) 764-0000 ext. 7373
E-mail: pura.centeno@gmail.com

Carlos R. Morales Irizarry, Ph.D.
President, Connect Campus
Tarrant County College

Before becoming TCC Connect’s President in 2013, Dr. Carlos Morales was the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs and Distance Education Programs at Ana G. Méndez University- Virtual Campus. As such, he provided leadership, vision and planning for the implementation of courses and programs for online delivery. Previously he was the Executive Director of Academic Technology at Lock Haven University responsible for the delivery of online courses, the incorporation of technology for teaching and learning, faculty development, the STEP program (a student laptop initiative) and also facilitated campus conversations on academic technology. Prior to Lock Haven University, Carlos was the Instructional Designer for the Center for Instructional and Technological Innovation (CITI) at New Jersey City University, responsible for instructional technology staff. Carlos has extensive online and classroom teaching experience in the areas of: Biology, Science Teaching and Instructional Technology. Dr. Morales also holds professional certifications as Distance Learning Administration Professional from Texas A&M University and Certified Online Instructor (COI) from Walden University. Morales graduated from the Inter American University of Puerto Rico, with bachelors and masters degrees in Biology and Science Education, and received his doctorate, with a dissertation on Constructivist Learning Environments in Online Course Design, from Capella University. He was a Frye fellow in 2009.

Contact Information: https://www.tccd.edu/

Yubelkys Montalvo, M.A.
HETS Executive Director

On January 2006, The HETS Board of Directors appointed Ms. Yubelkys Montalvo, as the new Executive Director to lead the organization in its next steps. As an expert in member relations, project management, and integrated communications, Montalvo has contributed to HETS with a keen perspective, helping translate the organization members’ needs into opportunities for growth and collaboration. Montalvo’s job focus on bringing growth to the Consortium and diversifying member benefits, as it expands its membership, creates new services, and proposes new educational technology options for its constituencies. Montalvo has a Bachelor’s Degree in Communications from the University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras Campus, and a Master’s Degree on Public Relations from the Sacred Heart University in Puerto Rico and currently pursuing a Doctoral Degree from the Inter American University of Puerto Rico, Ponce Campus. She had participated on several Conferences and Forums, National and International, and served as Speaker on the VI International Congress CITICED CREAD Caribe 2009 and the United States Distance Learning Association (USDLA) Annual National Conference on 2008, among others.

Contact information:
Address: PO Box 191293 San Juan, PR 00919-1293
Phone: (787) 250-1912 ext. 2372, 2373
E-mail: yubelkys_montalvo@inter.edu
Previous HOJ Editorial Board
(October 2010 - June 2014)

Flor Ivonne Chirino-Klevans, Ph.D.
HETS Online Journal Chief Editor
Director, International + Distance Education Alliances (I+DEA)

Dr. Ivonne Chirino-Klevans was the Program Director at the Center for International Programs at Walden University. Before her appointment as Program Director she was Faculty Chair for the Organizational Psychology PhD program at Walden. She also served as the Program Director for Duke Corporate Education, ranked number one in the world in executive education by the Financial Times. Prior to this, she was the Assistant Dean for Executive Education at Duke University’s Fuqua School of Business. Dr. Chirino-Klevans has expertise in Global Executive Education Program Design, International Client Management, and the use of technology to design online learning across cultures. Dr. Chirino-Klevans received her Ph.D. in Psychology from Universidad Iberoamericana, and also holds an MBA from Universidad de las Américas, and a Masters in Psychology from Georgia College and State University. Earlier in her career, she also served as the psychologist for the Mexican national rowing team, and contributed to the team winning a silver medal at the 1991 Pan Am Games. She herself is a Pan American games medalist in gymnastics and national champion in Gymnastics.

Contact information:
E-mail: ivonne@nc.rr.com

Dr. Naydeen González De Jesús
Vice President, Student Affairs
Bergen Community College

Over 14 years of experience in higher education administration at the community college level, emphasis on student affairs, minority student engagement and completion, labor relations, industrial/organizational management, mentoring women leaders, online teaching and learning, and curriculum development.

Howard Wach, Ph. D.
Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs and Director, Center for Teaching and Learning
LaGuardia Community College, City University of New York (CUNY)

Dr. Howard Wach joined LaGuardia Community College during academic year 2012-2013. Before that, he entered Bronx Community College as an Assistant Professor in the Department of History in 1998. He first taught online in 1999. He has directed faculty development programs for online teaching at BCC since 2003, and he has published and presented both in history and in academic technology. In 2008 Dr. Wach was appointed to the newly created position of Director of Instructional Technology, where he supervises programs in faculty development, curricular innovation, electronic student portfolios, and infrastructure improvement. Currently, he is acting as Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs and also is the Director of the Center for Teaching and Learning at LaGuardia Community College.

Contact Information:
Address: LaGuardia Community College, 31-10 Thomson Ave., M 414, Long Island City, NY 11101
Phone: 718-482-5478
Email: hwach@lgcc.cuny.edu
Dr. Robert Whittaker
Professor, Associate Provost and Assistant Vice President,
Office of Undergraduate Studies and Online Education
Lehman College of the City University of New York (CUNY)

Robert Whittaker is a Professor of Russian Language and Literature at Lehman College, CUNY, where he serves as Associate Provost for Undergraduate Studies and Online Education. He came to Lehman in 1971, where he has taught not only Russian but also Soviet politics and Russian history. He has studied in Russia and regularly visits Moscow and St. Petersburg to conduct research on American-Russian cultural relations. Most recently he has been studying and writing on the nearly two thousand letters written by Americans to the novelist Leo Tolstoy and Tolstoy’s letters to Americans. At Lehman Professor Whittaker coordinates the General Education program and directs the College’s online learning programs. Professor Whittaker was also instrumental in designing the new CUNY Online Baccalaureate program. His current focus is on developing Lehman’s Multimedia Center as a platform for expanding mediated learning and on the shared goals and objectives of the College’s broad variety of undergraduate programs. Dr. Whittaker has retired from Lehman College of the City University of New York.

Contact information:
Phone: (718) 960-7806
E-mail: robert.whittaker@lehman.cuny.edu

Pamela A. Krauser Vargas
Executive Director, Research Center,
Kutztown University of Pennsylvania

Ms. Vargas has over 19 years of experience in university research administration. Her responsibilities have included the implementation of electronic research administration systems. She participated in a Department of Energy pilot study on electronic research administration and assisted with the testing of enhancements for the National Science Foundation’s FastLane system. She also served as an Associate Editor for The Journal of Research Administration and is also a member of the Academic Review Committee for The Journal of Healthcare, Science and the Humanities – A Navy Medicine Publication. Ms. Vargas accepted to become the second HOJ Chief Editor on July 2014.

Contact information:
Phone: (484) 646-4340
E-mail: pvargas@kutztown.edu

Alyson Vogel
Associate Director, Online Education
Office of Undergraduate Studies and Online Education, Lehman College, CUNY

Alyson Vogel joined Lehman College in March 2010 as the Associate Director for the Office of Online Education, and is in the process of designing and leading faculty development programs in Hybrid/Blended and fully online learning environments. Before coming to Lehman she worked as a Program Development Specialist for Teachers College, Columbia University where she devoted much of her time to faculty development: course design, curriculum planning, online teaching, training, coaching & mentoring teacher educators. Her 11-year career in educational programming and directing a US Department of Education grant project in media and technology literacy evolved from two decades working in network radio and television. Her academic interests surround online pedagogy: facilitating online collaboration, the thoughtful integration of online and Web 2.0 tools and inquiry into the scholarship of teaching and learning.
Contact Information:
Address: Office of Undergraduate Studies and Online Education Lehman College, Bronx, NY 10468

E. Gil Clary, Ph.D
Assistant Provost for Faculty & Academic Administration
Kutztown University of Pennsylvania

Gil Clary was Assistant Provost for Faculty and Academic Administration at Kutztown University of Pennsylvania. At Kutztown University, a public institution, he is responsible for facilitating and coordinating assessments of student learning outcomes and institutional effectiveness. Prior to joining the University in 2009, he was a professor of psychology at St. Catherine University in St. Paul Minnesota and actively engaged in research on people’s motivations for performing volunteer work and other questions related to the not-for-profit sector. In addition, Clary spent a year as a social psychology program director at the National Science Foundation in Arlington Virginia.

Contact information:
Phone: 610-683-4229
Email: clary@kutztown.edu