

Message from the Chairman

Welcome to the HETS Online Journal,

As the Chair of the Board of Directors, I am delighted to welcome you to enjoy this important publication. This issue addresses a number of relevant topics impacting Hispanic Students. This bilingual, peer- reviewed journal provides a forum for in-depth discussion about technology and its impact on the pedagogy that is used at our colleges

The HETS Online Journal is provided as a service to the entire academic community. It is my sincere hope that you share the link to the site (HETS Online Journal) with your colleagues. As a communication vehicle for educators who employ various forms of technology to teach Hispanic students, the HETS Online Journal serves a purpose to amplify the message about how we can use technology to improve our pedagogy. As technology advances continue to come to market, an independent voice regarding the use of technology is essential. It is our hope that our journal fulfills such a need. And, if you have a technique or an advancement that you want to share with your colleagues, please consider submitting an article for the next edition.

You are more than welcome to submit your article for consideration before January 31st, 2012.

Thanks to the editors who reviewed the many articles submitted. I hope that you find reading this fine edition a useful experience.
