

HETS VIRTUAL BEST PRACTICES SHOWCASE

Celebrating Innovation
in Access, Retention and Assessment
in Distance Learning Education

JANUARY 17 TO
FEBRUARY 8, 2013

Where:

Virtual, completely online! (combination of live presentations and uploaded ones)

What:

Virtual HETS Best Practices Showcase will focus on three main tracks: Retention and Assessment efforts in Distance Learning, Equivalence, and Authentication in Distance Learning Education for Hispanics.

Who Should Participate:

Academic leaders, Distance Learning Directors, Academic and Student Affairs Vice Presidents or Deans, faculty, technology staff, investigators, corporate representatives related to technology and education, students and general public.

Showcase Tracks:

1. Retention and Assessment efforts in Distance Learning
2. Equivalence
3. Authentication

Call for proposals:

Submit a short proposal (no more than five pages) totally online, using the electronic platform available at www.hets.org.

The proposal can be submitted and presented (if selected) in English or Spanish. The deadline to submit your proposal is October 26, 2012.

Registration Fees

- HETS Members: free of charge!

In order to register free of charge participant must register with a valid institutional email account.

- Regular Fee: $50.00 each individual track or $100.00 (all 3 tracks)

To register online visit: 2013 Virtual BPS registration.

Don't miss this opportunity and reserve your virtual space today!

For additional information contact the HETS office via email:
info@hets.org or calling to 787-766-2600 x. 8910.

HETS
Hispanic Educational Technology Services