

April 15, 2016
JJC, New York

The HETS Consortium invites you to participate in the HETS Student Leadership Showcase

on April 15, 2016 at John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
This is an exclusive event for leaders of student organizations at HETS member institutions, like you. The main purpose of this event is promoting access to free of charge online student services that can support your academic goals! Among these services you can find information about scholarships, internships, jobs search, online tools and tips about careers. We also want to share with you topics about how to use technology to maximize your resources, and success stories of professionals and students. Moreover, we want to know about your interests and needs to collaborate on exploring solutions to create additional support services.

Date: April 15, 2016

Time: 8:00 am to 1:30 pm

Place: John Jay College of Criminal Justice, NYC

Reserve your space today! This event is free of charge,
