

STUDENT LIFE

ATHLETICS

Cal State is a Division II campus that offers students the opportunity to unleash their full potential and compete against other campuses. Cal State LA competes in 11 inter-collegiate sports, including Men's Baseball, Men's and Women's Basketball, Men's and Women's Cross Country, Men's and Women's Track and Field, Women's Tennis, and Women's Volleyball.

Our University has multiple national champions, and our athletes have gone on to win 19 Olympic medals including 10 gold!

CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

We have over 20 fraternities and sororities on campus, from which students experience relationships, Community service, leadership development, networking, and personal growth. Our community includes organizations that are community-service based, culturally focused, social, and everything in between so there's a place for everyone in our growing community!

Highlights

The NASA University Research Center is the only CSU center for the study of Aerospace Technology and Space Science Enterprises.

State-of-the-art, on-campus computer access is available through five open labs, and more than 60 networked classrooms. Plus, free on-campus student Wi-Fi access.

Cal State LA is dedicated to engagement, service, and the public good. Our curriculum is designed with a dual commitment to campus and community, with programs that enrich our students academically and support our region.

Most of Cal State LA classes are taught by professors, not teaching assistants, creating a more meaningful learning experience.

Eagle-Con is a three-day convention that brings together science fiction, fantasy, comic books, and superheroes, as well as insider views of these highly creative genres!

CAL STATE LA

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

Why Choose Us?

Small Campus Feel

More than 90% of our classes have fewer than 50 students, which means your teacher will know who you are.

Undergraduate Research

Don't wait until your graduate courses. We have many programs where undergrads are hands-on with knowledge creation.

Diversity

Cal State LA's student population is as diverse as the communities it serves and students are required to complete two diversity courses to graduate.

Community Engagement

Community Engagement is one of our top priorities at Cal State LA. #IServeLA sends more than 3,500 students every year into the city of LA to make a meaningful difference.

Cultural Hub

Just minutes from Downtown Los Angeles, Cal State LA is located near the world's entertainment capital, where our students can explore various cultural attractions, such as museums, music, and theatres.

"Cal State Los Angeles is not just a great university in the greatest city on the face of the earth. They're number one- they're No. 1 for social mobility and economic mobility in the United States of America."

-LA Mayor Eric Garcetti

At An Eagle's Glance

Nestled in the hills of one of the world's most diverse cities, Cal State LA is nationally ranked 24th in TIME Magazine's 2014 list of top colleges nationally, and one of the top 10 colleges in the nation for upward social mobility according to The New York Times.

Our university is committed to providing opportunities for students to achieve academic, personal, and professional success. It is important to understand why Cal State LA is a spectacular choice for you, so lets start here!
